Among the departing passengers in the Alameda this morning were two moving picture men from Grand Rapids, Michigan, who came here in the same boat to establish a moving picture show. They had the idea that this would be quite a novelty here, but they found that the ground was already too well covered to offer them sufficient inducements to remain.

SENSATIONS IN

Mrs. Henshall alleges came from the lips of Mrs. Bessie R. Burns.

Mrs. Henshall went on the stand at 10 o'clock and her testimony appeared to be centered principally on an effort to show that Mrs. Burns had used very un-sisterly language in discussing the distribution of family funds.

TAKAHASHI BELIEVES JAPANESE IMMIGRANTS SHOULD SCATTER

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 23.—In an interview here, Korekiyo Takahashi said that the collection of Japanese on the Pacific Coast was detrimental, and that he would advise his government that immigrants should have sufficient money to reach the Middle States.

Korekiyo Takahashi is one of Japan's great financiers, and is known as the Pierpont Morgan of Japan. He passed through here to America in February, 1906.

BREAK WITH VENEZUELA

CARACAS, Venez., June 23.—The American Legation is ready to embark for home. A rupture with Venezuela is expected.

The rupture with Venezuela has long been threatened. The trouble is centered principally about the affairs of the Asphalt Trust, and, although Americans are very much in doubt as to the propriety of some of the actions of the Trust, the conduct of the Venezuelan Government has been neither dignified nor just. The crisis has been brought about by the refusal of the Venezuelan Government to arbitrate the questions at issue either in block or separately. W. W. Russel is the American Minister to Venezuela.
